Improve Your Skills

The skills shown here are carefully selected, based on an analysis of your PSAT/NMSQT® results. For each skill, you'll find practical suggestions for improvement over the long term.

The screenshot displays the 'My SAT Study Plan' interface. At the top, there are navigation tabs for 'Study Plan', 'Reading', 'Math', 'Writing', and 'Practice Test'. Below these are three main sections: 'Review & Analyze', 'Improve Your Skills', and 'Practice & Prepare'. The 'Improve Your Skills' section is active, showing two cards for skill improvement. The first card is titled 'Understanding how negative words, suffixes, and prefixes affect sentences'. It includes a 'How to Improve' section with bullet points: 'Negative words like "not" and "never"...' and 'Suffixes like "less"...' followed by '2000 PSAT/NMSQT Questions'. The second card is titled 'Understanding how authors use rhetorical devices, such as parallelism, to explain or to persuade...' and includes a 'How to Improve' section with bullet points: 'Authors use rhetorical devices...' followed by '2000 PSAT/NMSQT Questions'. At the bottom of the interface, there are 'Previous' and 'Next' navigation buttons.
