

Being a student in McKinney ISD's ISM course is a privilege. ISM is a highly-visible program on campuses, in the district, and at mentors' places of business in McKinney and surrounding communities. Mentors give freely of their valuable time, expertise, and resources. Because of this, ISM students must be trusted to conduct themselves professionally and properly in many different situations both in and out of school. Students who thrive and are happiest in ISM embody the following characteristics:
